1.2. Interpretation

In this Constitution unless the context requires otherwise:

- (a) a reference to the Company is a reference to Australian Calisthenic Federation, a public company limited by guarantee which operates for the Principal Purpose;
- (b) a reference to a Member present at a General Meeting means the Member present in person or by proxy or attending by approved technological means;
- (c) a reference to a document or instrument includes any amendments made to it from time to time and, unless the contrary intention appears, includes a replacement;
- (d) words importing gender include all genders;
- (e) words in the singular include the plural and words in the plural include the singular;
- (f) the word person includes a firm, a body corporate, a partnership, a joint venture, an unincorporated body or association or an authority;
- (g) a reference to an organisation includes a reference to its successors, executors, administrators, substitutes and permitted assigns;
- (h) headings in this constitution are for reference only and do not form part of the Constitution;
- (i) where an expression is defined, another part of speech or grammatical form of that expression has a corresponding meaning;
- (j) a reference to a law includes regulations and instruments made under it and includes any statutory modification re-enactments of, or legislative provisions substituted for, and any subordinate legislation issued under, that legislation or provision;
- (k) the words include, includes, including and for example are not to be interpreted as words of limitation;
- (l) where, by a provision of this Constitution, a document including a notice is required to be signed, that requirement may be satisfied in relation to an electronic communication of the document in any manner permitted by law or by any State or Commonwealth law relating to electronic transmissions or in any other manner approved by the Board; and
- (m) a reference to “dollars” or “$” is to an amount in Australian currency.

1.3. Corporations

In this Constitution:

- (a) unless the context requires otherwise, an expression has, in a provision of this Constitution that deals with a matter dealt with by a particular provision of the Corporations Act, the same meaning as in that provision of the Corporations Act;
- (b) the provisions of the Corporations Act that apply as Replaceable Rules are displaced by this Constitution and accordingly do not apply to the Company;

- (c) in the event that any of the provisions of this Constitution are in breach of any of the provisions of the Corporations Act, then the provisions will be read down to the extent that they will comply with the Corporations Act and any provision that is in breach of the Corporations Act will be deemed to be struck out and will not form part of this Constitution; and
- (d) in the event that the Corporations Act permits an act to be done, a decision to be made or a meeting to be held in a way that is more convenient for the Company or the Board or is more favourable to the Members or the Board than as required or permitted by this Constitution then the Board may, but will not be obliged to, make the decision, take the action, give the notice or hold the meeting or do the particular thing as permitted and in the time and in the manner permitted by the Corporations Act.

2. COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE

2.1. Status of Company

The Company is a company limited by guarantee.

2.2. Limited Liability

The liability of Members is limited to the amount of the guarantee in clause 2.3.

2.3. The guarantee

Each Member must contribute an amount not more than $10 (the guarantee) to the property of the Company if the Company is wound up while the Member is a Member, or within 12 months after they stop being a Member, and this contribution is required to pay for the:

- (a) debts and liabilities of the Company incurred before the Member stopped being a Member; or
- (b) costs of winding up.

3. OBJECTS

3.1. The Company is the peak body for the administration of Calisthenics in Australia and has the following Objects:

- (a) promote and encourage the advancement and development of Calisthenics both within Australia and overseas and to ensure the protection of the separate and collective interests of all affiliated bodies;
- (b) provide for the conduct, encouragement, promotion and administration of Calisthenics through and by various Member States or other organisations for the mutual and collective benefit of the Members and Calisthenics;
- (c) act in good faith and loyalty to ensure the maintenance and enhancement of the Company and Calisthenics, its standards, quality and reputation for the collective and mutual benefit of the Members and Calisthenics;
- (d) at all times operate with and promote mutual trust and confidence between the Company and the Members in pursuit of the Objects;
- (e) at all times to act on behalf of, in the interests of, and in conjunction with, the Members;

- (f) promote the economic and sporting success, strength and stability of the Company and each Member State and to act interdependently with each Member State in pursuit of the Objects;
- (g) ensure that a competent standard of Calisthenics is maintained throughout Australia, meeting the diverse needs of the community;
- (h) develop a sense of sportsmanship and a high degree of proficiency in competitors and participants in Calisthenics;
- (i) enable competitors to achieve a high level of physical and mental fitness through the coaching and practices of Calisthenics;
- (j) apply the property and capacity of the Company towards the fulfilment and achievement of the Objects;
- (k) use and protect the Intellectual Property Rights;
- (l) collect, distribute and publish information in connection with Calisthenics and Events;
- (m) promote and control Events;
- (n) strive for governmental, commercial and public recognition of the Company, the Member States and Calisthenics;
- (o) promulgate and secure uniformity in such rules as may be necessary or appropriate for the management and control of Calisthenics and related activities in Australia;
- (p) further develop the Company as an organised institution and, with these Objects in view, to foster, regulate, organise and manage national and international competitions, displays and other activities and to present awards as appropriate;
- (q) review and/or determine any matters relating to Calisthenics which may arise or be referred to it by any Member State;
- (r) recognise any penalty imposed by any Member State;
- (s) through or in association with the Member States or other entities or of itself, promote the health and safety of participants, coaches, examiners and adjudicators registered with any Member State or other recognised Calisthenics organisation or other entity;
- (t) through or in association with the Member States or other entities or of itself, encourage participants, coaches, examiners and adjudicators registered with any Member State or other recognised Calisthenics organisation to realise their potential and athletic abilities by extending to them the opportunity of education and further participation in Calisthenics;
- (u) conduct or commission research and development for improvements in Calisthenics;
- (v) pursue through itself or others, such commercial arrangements, including sponsorship and marketing opportunities as are appropriate, to further the Objects and Calisthenics;
- (w) formulate or adopt and implement appropriate policies, including but not limited to those in relation to child safety, sexual harassment, equal opportunity, communications, privacy, decision making, equity, drugs in sport, health, safety, junior and senior programs, infectious diseases and such other matters as arise from time to time as issues to be addressed in Calisthenics;
- (x) represent the interests of its Members and of Calisthenics generally in any appropriate forum;
- (y) have regard to the public interest in its operation;
- (z) encourage and promote performance-enhancing drug free competition and Events; and

- (aa) undertake and or do all things or activities which are necessary, incidental or conducive to the advancement of these objects.

4. PRINCIPAL PURPOSE

The Company is established to:

- (a) be a company whose principal purpose is to be the peak administrative body and oversee all matters related to Calisthenics in Australia; and
- (b) do all things necessary to achieve the Objects.

5. POWERS

Solely for furthering the Objects under clause 3, the Company, in addition to any other powers it has under the Corporations Act, has the legal capacity and powers of a company limited by guarantee as set out under section 124 of the Corporations Act.

6. AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION

- 6.1. This Constitution may be amended or repealed in accordance with this Constitution, and the Corporations Act.
- 6.2. Amendments to this Constitution will be made by Special Resolution passed at either an AGM or a General Meeting.
- 6.3. A Special Resolution amending, adopting or repealing the Constitution takes effect:
 - (a) if no later date is specified in the Special Resolution, then on the date on which the resolution is passed; or
 - (b) on a later date specified in, or determined in accordance with, the Special Resolution.

7. INCOME AND PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY

7.1. Sole Purpose

The income and property of the Company will only be applied towards the promotion of the Objects of the Company and for the Principal Purpose.

7.2. Payments to Members

Subject to clause 7.3, no income or property will be paid or transferred directly or indirectly to any Member except for payments to a Member:

- (a) in return for any services rendered or goods supplied in the ordinary and usual course of business to the Company; or
- (b) as reimbursement for expenses properly incurred on behalf of the Company;
- (c) of interest at a rate not exceeding current bank overdraft rates of interest for moneys lent;
- (d) in return for services as a Director but only in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution; or
- (e) of reasonable rent for premises let to the Company by them.

7.3. The Board may, in its discretion, authorise the payment of monies for the following purposes:

- (a) honorarium payment to the head of the Company's Standing Committees;
- (b) for reimbursement of any reasonable expenses incurred traveling for an interstate meeting, including travel and accommodation costs; and
- (c) in accordance with clause 8.5(i).

8. MEMBERSHIP

8.1. Categories of Members

- (a) Members of the Company will be:
 - (i) Member States – who, subject to this Constitution, shall be represented by their State Delegates who have the right to be present, debate and vote at General Meetings and meetings of the State Advisory Committee and on behalf of the Member States;
 - (ii) Life Members – who, subject to this Constitution, may, upon invitation from the Board, attend and debate at the Annual General Meetings, but otherwise have no right to vote at Annual General Meetings;
 - (iii) such new categories of Members as created in accordance with clause 8.2.
- (b) Member States will advise the Company of the name of the person appointed as its authorised representative or State Delegate to attend General Meetings and vote on its behalf, not less than 7 days before the date of the scheduled General Meeting.

8.2. Creation of new categories of memberships

The Board has the right and power from time to time to create new categories of membership in accordance with any applicable Policies with such rights, privileges and obligations as are determined applicable (other than voting rights), even if the effect of creating a new class is to alter rights, privileges or obligations of an existing category of Members. No new category of membership may be granted voting rights.

8.3. Recognition of Member States

- (a) The entity which is recognised by the Company as a Member State shall be the only official representative of and controlling authority for Calisthenics in that State or Territory.
- (b) Each Member State shall be named according to the State or Territory in which it is located.
- (c) A Member State affiliation will be recognised by the Company once the state:
 - (i) is admitted by the Company;
 - (ii) pays the state registration annual membership fee; and
 - (iii) signs a form committing to abide by the Constitution and Policies of the Company as amended from time to time.

8.4. Compliance of Member States

Each Member State shall:

- (a) be incorporated in its particular State or Territory or as a public company limited by guarantee;
- (b) provide the Company with copies of its annual report inclusive of financial statements immediately following the Member State's annual general meeting;
- (c) adopt the Objects and adopt rules which reflect and which are, to the extent permitted or required by the relevant legislation, in conformity with this Constitution;
- (d) apply its property and capacity in pursuit of the Objects, the support and development of the Member States and Calisthenics in Australia, as amended from time to time;
- (e) at all times act for the joint advantage of the Company, the Members, and Calisthenics;
- (f) do all that is reasonably necessary to enable the Objects to be achieved;
- (g) act in good faith and loyalty to maintain and enhance the Company and Calisthenics, its standards, quality and reputation for the collective and mutual benefit of the Members and Calisthenics; and
- (h) at all times operate with and promote mutual trust and confidence between the Company and the Members in pursuit of the Objects;

8.5. Operation of Constitution between Company and Member States

Member States and the Company agree:

- (a) they are bound by this Constitution;
- (b) to act in good faith and loyalty to each other to ensure the maintenance and enhancement of Calisthenics, its standards, quality and reputation for the collective and mutual benefit of the Members and Calisthenics;
- (c) not to do or permit to be done any act or thing which might adversely affect or derogate from the standards, quality and reputation of Calisthenics and its maintenance and enhancement;
- (d) to make full and proper disclosure to each other of all matters of importance to the Company and Calisthenics;
- (e) to ensure that no Member acquires a material or financial advantage at the expense of the Company or any Member State or Calisthenics;
- (f) to operate with mutual trust and confidence in pursuit of the Objects;
- (g) to promote the economic and sporting success, strength and stability of each other and to act interdependently with each other in pursuit of the Objects;
- (h) to act for and on behalf of the interests of Calisthenics, the Company and the Members; and
- (i) that should a Member State have administrative, operational or financial difficulties, the Board may, in its absolute discretion in accordance with clause 7.3, act to assist that Member State in whatever manner and on such conditions as the Board considers appropriate.

8.6. Non-Compliance

Any breach by a Member of this Constitution shall be dealt with by the Company's disciplinary procedure or Policies, as amended from time to time.

8.7. Admission of Members

An entity will become a Member, and the Board will direct the Company Secretary to record a Member's name in the Register of Members kept by the Company, only upon meeting the criteria as determined by the Board or as set out in this Constitution and the Policies and provided the Member has submitted an application, which is accepted by the Board, in which the Member undertakes to:

- (a) be bound by this Constitution and the Policies (including Policies specific to the relevant category of Membership);
- (b) pay any Fee determined to apply to the Member under clause 10; and
- (c) support the Company in the encouragement and promotion of its Objects and Principal Purpose.

8.8. Subject to this Constitution, the Policies will set out:

- (a) the categories of Membership which exist;
- (b) the criteria to be met by each category of Member;
- (c) the procedure for suspending or cancelling Membership; and
- (d) the voting rights and rights of attendance at General Meetings for different categories of Membership.

8.9. A Member agrees to comply with this Constitution and the Policies and support the Company and the Objects.

8.10. A Member is entitled to any benefits of membership prescribed to apply to Members in the Constitution and Policies.

8.11. Company's Register of Members

- (a) The Company Secretary must keep a Register of Members. The Register of Members must be kept by the Company Secretary and must contain:
 - (i) for each current Member:
 - (A) name;
 - (B) address;
 - (C) any alternative address nominated by the Member for the service of notices; and
 - (D) date the Member was entered on to the register;
 - (ii) for each person who stopped being a Member in the last 7 years:
 - (A) name;

- (B) address;
 - (C) any alternative address nominated by the Member for the service of notices; and
 - (D) dates the membership started and ended.
- (b) The Company must give current Members access to the Register of Members in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (c) Information that is accessed from the Register of Members must only be used in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of Members.
- (d) No Member whose membership ceases has any claim against the Company or the Directors for damages or otherwise arising from cessation or termination of membership, or claim upon the property of the Company including its Intellectual Property Rights.
- (e) Membership is particular to each Member. Members must not, and must not purport to, assign the rights comprising or associated with membership to any other person or entity and any attempt to do so will be void.
- (f) A Member must treat all staff, contractors and representatives of the Company with respect and courtesy at all times.
- (g) A Member must not act in a manner unbecoming of a Member or prejudicial to the Objects, Principal Purpose or interests of the Company.

8.12. Registration of members in each Member State

- (a) Register of Members – Member States
 - (i) Each Member State shall maintain, in a form and with such details as are acceptable to the Company, a register of all individual members in their State.
 - (ii) Each Member State shall provide relevant member information in a form acceptable to the Company for inclusion on the Company's database and shall provide prompt and regular updates of that information to the Company when requested by the Board.
 - (iii) Each Member State must comply with all relevant Privacy Laws.
- (b) Inspection of Register
 - (i) Having regard to privacy and confidentiality considerations, an extract of the register, including the address of Members and the date on which they became a Member, shall be available for inspection by anybody, upon reasonable request and in accordance with the Act.

8.13. Cessation

A person will cease to be a Member on:

- (a) resignation;
- (b) the termination of their membership according to this Constitution or the Policies; or
- (c) without limiting anything else in this clause 8.13, that Member no longer meeting the requirements for membership under this Constitution or the Policies.

8.14. Resignation

For the purposes of clause 8.13(a), a Member may resign as a Member of the Company by giving 14 days' prior written notice to the Company Secretary.

8.15. Life Members

- (a) Member States may nominate persons to be considered for life membership of the Company. The Board may consider at the relevant AGM that one or more persons duly nominated and who has rendered distinguished service to Calisthenics in Australia, where such service is deemed to have assisted the advancement of Calisthenics in Australia, have life membership conferred on them.
- (b) A resolution of the AGM to confer life membership on the recommendation of the Board must be a Special Resolution.
- (c) Upon life membership being conferred, the person's details shall be entered upon the register. A person shall become a Life Member from the time their life membership is formally announced not from the time of entry of their details on the register.

8.16. Certificate of Recognition

Member States may nominate persons to be considered for a Certificate of Recognition. The Board may consider and determine at the relevant AGM that one or more persons duly nominated have met the criteria for each award as stipulated in the By-laws.

9. STANDARDS AND DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS

9.1. Jurisdiction

All Members will be subject to, and submit unreservedly to, the jurisdiction, procedures, penalties and appeal mechanisms of the Company whether under the Policies or under this Constitution.

9.2. Investigation

The Board may refer the following matters for investigation or determination by an appointed committee or investigator in accordance with the relevant Policy in its sole discretion:

- (a) breach of Constitution, Policy or By-law: an allegation or grievance (not being vexatious, trifling or frivolous) by a complainant (who may be, but need not be a Member) that an Individual Member, Member State or Life Member has:
 - (i) breached, failed, refused or neglected to comply with a provision of this Constitution, the By-laws, Policies or any other resolution or determination of the Company, Board or duly authorised Committee;
 - (ii) acted in a manner unbecoming of a Member or prejudicial to the objects and interests of the Company or Calisthenics; or
 - (iii) brought the Company or Calisthenics into disrepute which for the avoidance of doubt, will include breaches of a law which subjects that Member to a criminal sanction; and

- (b) disciplinary matter: where the Board (in its sole discretion) considers the matter is of a serious enough nature, an appeal from a Member who has received a penalty or an adverse finding in disciplinary proceedings conducted by a Member State, provided that the Member has first exhausted all avenues of appeal available under the constitutions of the Member State.

9.3. Standards Policies

- (a) The Directors may make a Policy or Policies:
 - (i) for the hearing and determination of:
 - (A) grievances by any Member who feels aggrieved by a decision or action of the Company;
 - (B) disputes between Members; and
 - (C) complaints by a member of the public;
 - (ii) for the discipline of Members;
 - (iii) for the formation and administration of a standards committee which must be independent of any party before it on the matter which is the subject of the appeal in question; and
 - (iv) for the termination of Members.

9.4. Expulsion of a Member

- (a) Member State's Failure to Comply
 - (i) Notwithstanding clause 9.4(a)(ii), where a Member State fails to comply with its financial and reporting obligations under this Constitution, the Board may determine that Member State to be not of good standing.
 - (ii) On determination that a Member State is not of good standing, meaning they have failed to comply with an obligation under this Constitution, the Board may give notice to the Member State of the:
 - (A) Board's determination; and
 - (B) grounds for the Board's determination,and request that the Member State show cause within 21 days from the date of that notice as to why some action should not be taken against the Member State. The Member State's failure to respond or act to the Board's satisfaction (including assurances or compliance with its obligations) may result in the Board suspending or terminating the Member State's membership of the Company, or otherwise imposing such conditions on the Member's membership, as the Board sees fit.
 - (iii) Such penalty (other than termination) will take effect upon notification to the Member by the Board. Nothing in this Rule effects the operation of clause 9.4(b).
- (b) Expulsion Event
 - (i) The Directors may resolve to expel a Member if:
 - (A) an Expulsion Event occurs in respect of the Member; and

- (B) the Company gives that Member at least 10 Business Days' notice in writing stating the Expulsion Event and that the Member is liable to be expelled, and informing the Member of its right under clause 9.4(b)(iii).
 - (ii) The Directors may resolve to expel a Member if the Member does not pay a Fee payable by the Member pursuant to this Constitution within 60 Business Days after the due date for its payment;
 - (iii) Before the passing of any resolution under clause 9.4(b)(ii) or 9.4(b)(i), a Member is entitled to give the Directors, either orally or in writing, any explanation or defence of the Expulsion Event the Member may think fit;
 - (iv) Where a resolution is passed under clause 9.4(b)(i) or clause 9.4(b)(ii), the Company must give that Member notice in writing of the expulsion within 10 Business Days of the resolution;
 - (v) A Member may by notice in writing to the Company within 10 Business Days of receipt of the notice, request that a resolution be reviewed by the Company at the next General Meeting. If such a request is made, the Directors must propose at the next General Meeting of the Company that a resolution be moved to confirm the expulsion of the Member concerned;
 - (vi) A resolution under clause 9.4(b) takes effect:
 - (A) if the Member gives a notice under clause 9.4(b)(v) on the date (if any) the resolution is confirmed by a General Meeting of the Company; or
 - (B) if the Member does not give a notice under clause 9.4(b)(v), on the date of the resolution.
 - (vii) The Directors may reinstate an expelled Member on any terms and at any time as the Directors resolve, including a requirement that all amounts due but unpaid by the expelled Member are paid.
- (c) Forfeiture of Rights
- (i) A Member (including a Member State) which ceases to be a Member, for whatever reason, shall forfeit all rights in and claims upon the Company and its property, including the Intellectual Property Rights; and
 - (ii) Any Company documents, records or other property in the possession, custody or control of that Member shall be returned to the Company immediately.
- (d) Company Representation Rights
- Where a Member State ceases to be a Member it shall also forfeit all representation rights on the Company. A Member State shall return any Company documents, records or other property in its possession, custody or control to the Company immediately upon cessation of membership.
- (e) Membership May be Reinstated
- Membership which has lapsed, been withdrawn or terminated under this Constitution may be reinstated at the discretion of the Board, on application in accordance with this Constitution and otherwise on such conditions as the Board sees fit.
- (f) Individual Members
- Where a Member State ceases to be a Member in accordance with this Constitution or the Act, the Individual Members of that Member State may continue to be recognised by the Company to the extent (if any) and for such time (if any) as is determined in the sole discretion of the Board.

10. FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

10.1. The Board, on recommendations from the State Advisory Committee, must determine from time to time:

- (a) the amount (if any) payable by an applicant to become a Member;
- (b) the amount of the annual subscription Fee payable by each Member, or any category of Members;
- (c) any other amount to be paid by each Member, or any category of Members, whether of a recurrent or any other nature; and
- (d) the payment method and the due date for payment of the Fee within the timeframes specified by the Board from time to time.

10.2. Each Member must pay to the Company the Fee determined under this clause 10.

10.3. The Board may decide, on the recommendation of the State Advisory Committee, that fees are levied upon all Individual Members of Member States, and the respective Member States shall collect such prescribed fees from the Individual Members and remit the fees to the Company. Such fees, when levied, will be in the nature of a 'capitation' fee.

10.4. Any Member which has not paid all monies due and payable by that Member to the Company shall (subject to the Board's discretion) have all rights under this Constitution immediately suspended from the expiry of the time prescribed for payment of those monies. Such rights will be suspended until such time as the monies are fully paid, or otherwise in the Board's discretion. The Member shall be dealt with in the Board's discretion, which includes the right to suspend, disqualify, fine, discipline or retain that Member as a Member (but expressly not terminate that Member's membership), or impose such other conditions or requirements as the Board considers appropriate.

10.5. Where the Board exercises its discretion under 10.4 and imposes a penalty on a Member which has not paid all monies due and payable by that Member to the Company, the Company does not need to give notice to the Member.

10.6. Non-Payment of Fees

Subject to clause 10.7(a), the right of a Member to attend and vote at a General Meeting is suspended while the payment of any Fee or other amount determined under clause 10 is in arrears greater than 30 Business Days.

10.7. Deferral or reduction of Fee

- (a) The Directors may defer the obligations of a Member to pay a Fee or other amount, or reduce (including to zero) the Fee or other amount payable by a Member, if the Directors are satisfied that:
 - (i) there are reasonable grounds for doing so;
 - (ii) the Company will not be materially disadvantaged as a result; and

- (iii) the Member agrees to pay the deferred or (if greater than zero) the reduced Fee or other amount within a time fixed by the Directors.
- (b) If the Directors defer or reduce a Fee by a Member under this clause 10.7, that Member will retain their rights to attend and vote at a General Meeting, unless otherwise specified by the Directors, at the absolute discretion of the Directors.

11. GENERAL MEETINGS

11.1. General Meeting

- (a) The Directors may call a General Meeting.
- (b) Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a General Meeting may make a written request to the Company for a General Meeting to be held, the Directors must:
 - (i) within 21 days of the Members' request, give all Members notice of a General Meeting; and
 - (ii) hold the General Meeting within 2 months of the Members' request.
- (c) The Members who make the request for a General Meeting must:
 - (i) state in the request any resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
 - (ii) sign the request; and
 - (iii) give the request to the Company Secretary.
- (d) Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be signed by Members if the wording of the request is the same in each copy.

11.2. General meetings called by Members

- (a) If the Directors do not call the meeting within 21 days of being requested under clause 11.1(b), the Members who made the request may call and arrange to hold a General Meeting.
- (b) To call and hold a meeting under clause 11.2(a) the Members must:
 - (i) as far as possible, follow the procedures for General Meetings set out in this Constitution;
 - (ii) call the meeting using the list of Members on the Company's Member register, which the Company must provide to the Members making the request at no cost; and
 - (iii) hold the General Meeting within three months after the request was given to the Company.
- (c) The Company must pay the Members who request the General Meeting any reasonable expenses they incur holding the meeting because the Directors did not call and hold the meeting.

11.3. Annual General Meeting

- (a) A General Meeting, called the Annual General Meeting, must be held:
 - (i) within 18 months after registration of the Company; and
 - (ii) after the first AGM, at least once in every calendar year.

- (b) Even if these items are not set out in the notice of meeting, the business of an AGM will include:
 - (i) a review of the Company's activities;
 - (ii) a review of the Company's finances;
 - (iii) any auditor's report;
 - (iv) the election of Directors; and
 - (v) the appointment and payment of auditors; if any.
- (c) Before or at the AGM, the Directors must give information to the Members on the Company's activities and finances during the period since the last AGM.
- (d) The Chairperson of the Annual General Meeting must give Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity at the meeting to ask questions or make comments about the management of the Company.

11.4. Notice of General Meetings

- (a) Notice of a General Meeting, including the AGM, must be given to:
 - (i) each Member entitled to vote at the meeting;
 - (ii) each Director; and
 - (iii) the auditor (if any).
- (b) Notice of a General Meeting, including the AGM, must be provided in writing at least 21 days before the meeting.
- (c) Subject to clause 11.4(d), notice of a General Meeting may be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if:
 - (i) for an AGM, all the Members entitled to attend and vote at the AGM agree beforehand; or
 - (ii) for any other General Meeting, Members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.
- (d) Notice of a General Meeting, including the AGM, cannot be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if a resolution will be moved to:
 - (i) remove a Director;
 - (ii) appoint a Director in order to replace a Director who was removed; or
 - (iii) remove an auditor.
- (e) Notice of a General Meeting, including the AGM, must include:
 - (i) the place, date and time for the meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
 - (ii) the general nature of the meeting's business;
 - (iii) if applicable, that a Special Resolution is to be proposed and the words of the proposed resolution;
 - (iv) where applicable, any notice of motion received from any Member or Director; and
 - (v) a statement that Members have the right to appoint proxies and that, if a Member appoints a proxy:

- (A) the proxy must be a Member of the Company;
 - (B) the proxy form must be delivered to the Company at its registered address or the address (including an electronic address) specified in the notice of the meeting; and
 - (C) the proxy form must be delivered to the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting commencement time.
- (f) If a General Meeting, including the AGM, is adjourned (put off) for one month or more, the Members must be given new notice of the resumed meeting.

11.5. Quorum at General Meetings

- (a) For a General Meeting to be held, at least five (5) Members (a quorum) must be present (in person, by proxy or by representative) for the whole meeting. When determining whether a quorum is present, a person may only be counted once (even if that person is a proxy of more than one Member).
- (b) No business may be conducted at a General Meeting if a quorum is not present.
- (c) If there is no quorum present within 30 minutes after the starting time stated in the notice of General Meeting, the General Meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place that the Chairperson specifies.
- (d) If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the starting time set for that meeting, the meeting is cancelled.

11.6. Auditor's right to attend meetings

- (a) The auditor (if any) is entitled to attend any General Meeting and to be heard by the Members on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor in the capacity of auditor.
- (b) The Company must give the auditor (if any) any communications relating to the General Meeting that a Member of the Company is entitled to receive.

11.7. Representatives of Members

- (a) A Member's State Delegate or Alternate State Delegate may represent the Member at meetings and sign circular resolutions
- (b) A Member's State Delegate or Alternate State Delegate's appointment must:
 - (i) be in writing;
 - (ii) include the person's name;
 - (iii) be signed on behalf of the Member; and
 - (iv) be given to the Company or, for representation at a meeting, be given to the Chairperson before the meeting starts.
- (c) The Member State Delegate or Alternate State Delegate has all the rights of a Member relevant to the purposes of the appointment as a representative.

11.8. Using technology to hold meetings

- (a) The Company may hold a General Meeting at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate, including to hear and be heard.
- (b) Anyone using this technology is taken to be present in person at the meeting.

11.9. Chairperson for General Meetings

- (a) The Chair will be the Chairperson and is entitled to chair General Meetings.
- (b) The Members present and entitled to vote at a General Meeting may choose another Director or Member to be the Chairperson for that meeting if:
 - (i) there is no Chair;
 - (ii) the Chair is not present within 30 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting; or
 - (iii) the Chair is present but says they do not wish to act as Chairperson of the meeting.

11.10. Role of the Chairperson

- (a) The Chairperson is responsible for the general conduct of the General Meeting, and for this purpose must give Members a reasonable opportunity to make comments and ask questions (including to the auditor (if any)).
- (b) The Chairperson may require the adoption of any procedure which in his or her opinion is necessary or desirable for proper and orderly debate or discussion or the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes.
- (c) The Chairperson does not have a casting vote.

11.11. Adjournment of meetings

- (a) If a quorum is present, a General Meeting must be adjourned if a majority of Members present direct the Chairperson to adjourn it.
- (b) Only unfinished business may be dealt with at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

12. MEMBERS' RESOLUTIONS AND STATEMENTS

12.1. Members' resolutions and statements

- (a) Any one (1) Member may give:
 - (i) written notice to the Company of a resolution they propose to move at a General Meeting (Members' resolution); and
 - (ii) a written request to the Company that the Company give all of its Members a statement about a proposed resolution or any other matter that may properly be considered at a General Meeting (Members' statement).
- (b) A notice of a Members' resolution must set out the wording of the proposed resolution and be signed by the Members proposing the resolution.

- (c) A request to distribute a Members' statement must set out the statement to be distributed and be signed by the Members making the request.
- (d) Separate copies of a document setting out the notice or request may be signed by Members if the wording is the same in each copy.
- (e) The percentage of votes that Members have (as described in clause 13) is to be worked out as at midnight before the request or notice is given to the Company.
- (f) If the Company has been given notice of a Members' resolution under clause 12.1, the resolution must be considered at the next General Meeting held more than two months after the notice is given.
- (g) This clause does not limit any other right that a Member has to propose a resolution at a General Meeting.

12.2. Company must give notice of proposed resolution or distribute statement

- (a) If the Company has been given a notice or request under clause 12.1:
 - (i) in time to send the notice of proposed Members' resolution or a copy of the Members' statement to Members with a notice of meeting, it must do so at the Company's cost; or
 - (ii) too late to send the notice of proposed Members' resolution or a copy of the Members' statement to Members with a notice of meeting, then the Members who proposed the resolution or made the request must pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in giving Members notice of the proposed Members' resolution or a copy of the Members' statement. However, at a General Meeting, the Members may pass a resolution that the Company will pay these expenses.
- (b) The Company does not need to send the notice of proposed Members' resolution or a copy of the Members' statement to Members if:
 - (i) it is more than 1 000 words long;
 - (ii) the Directors consider it may be defamatory;
 - (iii) clause 12.2(a)(ii) applies, and the Members who proposed the resolution or made the request have not paid the Company enough money to cover the cost of sending the notice of the proposed Members' resolution or a copy of the Members' statement to Members; or
 - (iv) in the case of a proposed Members' resolution, the resolution does not relate to a matter that may be properly considered at a General Meeting or is otherwise not a valid resolution able to be put to the Members.

12.3. Circular resolutions of Members

- (a) Subject to clause 12.3(c), the Directors may put a resolution to the Members to pass a resolution without a General Meeting being held (a circular resolution).
- (b) The Directors must notify the auditor (if any) as soon as possible that a circular resolution has or will be put to Members and set out the wording of the resolution.
- (c) Circular resolutions cannot be used:
 - (i) for a resolution to remove an auditor, appoint a Director or remove a Director;
 - (ii) for passing a Special Resolution; or

- (iii) where the Corporations Act or this constitution requires a meeting to be held.
- (d) A circular resolution is passed if the required majority of the Members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or agree to the circular resolution, in the manner set out in clause 12.3(e) or clause 12.3(f).
- (e) Members may sign:
 - (i) a single document setting out the circular resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution; or
 - (ii) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.
- (f) The Company may send a circular resolution by email to Members and Members may agree by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

13. VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

13.1. How many votes a Member has:

- (a) Each Member State has one vote exercised by a State Delegate representing the Member State.
- (b) If there is more than one State Delegate representing a Member State, the State Delegates must collectively exercise their Member State's one vote.

13.2. Challenge to Member's right to vote:

- (a) A Member State or the Chairperson may only challenge a person's right to vote at a General Meeting at that meeting.
- (b) If a challenge is made under clause 13.2(a), the Chairperson must decide whether or not the person may vote. The Chairperson's decision is final.

13.3. How voting is carried out

- (a) Voting must be conducted and decided by:
 - (i) a show of hands;
 - (ii) a vote in writing; or
 - (iii) another method chosen by the Chairperson that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
- (b) Before a vote is taken, the Chairperson must state whether any proxy votes have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.
- (c) On a show of hands, the Chairperson's count is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.
- (d) The Chairperson and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

13.4. When and how a vote in writing must be held:

- (a) A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands by:

- (i) at least five Member States present;
 - (ii) Member States present with at least 5% of the votes that may be passed on the resolution on the vote in writing (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded); or
 - (iii) the Chairperson.
- (b) A vote in writing must be taken when and how the Chairperson directs, unless clause 13.4(c) applies.
- (c) A vote in writing must be held immediately if it is demanded under clause 13.4(a):
- (i) for the election of a Chairperson under clause 11.9(b); or
 - (ii) to decide whether to adjourn the meeting.
- (d) A demand for a vote in writing may be withdrawn.

13.5. Appointment of proxy

- (a) A Member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at a General Meeting on their behalf.
- (b) A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a Member has the same rights as the Member to:
- (i) speak at the meeting;
 - (ii) vote in a vote in writing (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
 - (iii) join in to demand a vote in writing under clause 13.4(a).
- (c) An appointment of proxy (proxy form) must be signed by the Member appointing the proxy and must contain:
- (i) the Member's name and address;
 - (ii) the Company's name;
 - (iii) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - (iv) the meeting(s) at which the appointment may be used.
- (d) A proxy appointment may be standing (ongoing).
- (e) A proxy does not have the authority to speak and vote for a Member at a meeting while the Member's State Delegate is at the meeting.
- (f) Unless the Company receives written notice before the start or resumption of a General Meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy is valid even if, before the proxy votes, the appointing Member:
- (i) is mentally incapacitated;
 - (ii) revokes the proxy's appointment; or
 - (iii) revokes the authority of a representative or agent who appointed the proxy.
- (g) A proxy appointment may specify the way the proxy must vote on a particular resolution.

13.6. Voting by proxy

- (a) A proxy is entitled to vote on a show of hands unless the proxy holds two or more appointments that specify different ways of voting.

- (b) When a vote in writing is held, a proxy:
 - (i) does not need to vote, unless the proxy appointment specifies the way they must vote;
 - (ii) if the way they must vote is specified on the proxy form, must vote that way; and
 - (iii) if the proxy is also a Member or holds more than one proxy, may cast the votes held in different ways.

14. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- (e) to disclose any perceived or actual material conflicts of interest in the manner set out in clause 16.2;
- (f) to ensure that the financial affairs of the Company are managed responsibly; and
- (g) not to allow the Company to operate while it is insolvent.

16.2. Conflicts of interest

- (a) A Director must disclose the nature and extent of any actual or perceived material conflict of interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of Directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution):
 - (i) to the other Directors; or
 - (ii) if all the Directors have the same conflict of interest, to the Members at the next General Meeting, or at an earlier time if reasonable to do so.
- (b) The disclosure of a conflict of interest by a Director must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting and the Conflicts Register.
- (c) Each Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of Directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution) must not, except as provided under clause 16.2(d):
 - (i) be present at the meeting while the matter is being discussed; or
 - (ii) vote on the matter.
- (d) A Director may still be present and vote if:
 - (i) their interest arises because they are a Member of the Company, and the other Members have the same interest;
 - (ii) their interest relates to an insurance contract that insures, or would insure, the Director against liabilities that the Director incurs as a Director of the Company (see clause 25);
 - (iii) their interest relates to a payment by the Company for any insurance or indemnity, or any contract relating to an indemnity that is allowed under the Corporations Act;
 - (iv) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) makes an order allowing the Director to vote on the matter; or
 - (v) the Directors who do not have a material personal interest in the matter pass a resolution that:
 - (A) identifies the Director, the nature and extent of the Director's interest in the matter and how it relates to the affairs of the Company, and
 - (B) says that those Directors are satisfied that the interest should not stop the Director from voting or being present.

17. DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

17.1. When the Directors meet

The Directors may decide how often, where and when they meet.

17.2. Calling Directors' meetings

- (a) A Director may call a Directors' meeting by giving reasonable notice to all of the other Directors.
- (b) A Director may give notice in writing or by any other means of communication that has previously been agreed to by all of the Directors.

17.3. Chairperson for Directors' meetings

- (a) The Chair will be the Chairperson and is entitled to chair Directors' meetings.
- (b) The Directors at a Directors' meeting may choose a Director to be the Chairperson for that meeting if:
 - (i) there is no Chair;
 - (ii) the Chair is not present within 15 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting; or
 - (iii) the Chair is present but says they do not wish to act as Chairperson of the meeting.

17.4. Quorum at Directors' meetings

- (a) Unless the Directors determine otherwise, the quorum for a Directors' meeting is a majority (more than 50%) of Directors.
- (b) A quorum must be present for the entire Directors' meeting.

17.5. Using technology to hold Directors' meetings

- (a) The Directors may hold their meetings by using any technology (such as video or teleconferencing) that is agreed to by all the Directors.
- (b) The Directors' agreement may be a standing (ongoing) one.
- (c) A Director may only withdraw their consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.

17.6. Passing Directors' resolutions

A Directors' resolution must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by Directors present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

17.7. Circular resolutions of Directors

- (a) The Directors may pass a circular resolution without a Directors' meeting being held.
- (b) A circular resolution is passed if all the Directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign or otherwise agree to the resolution in the manner set out in this clause 17.7.

- (c) Each Director may sign:
 - (i) a single document setting out the resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution; or
 - (ii) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording of the resolution is the same in each copy.
- (d) The Company may send a circular resolution by email to the Directors and the Directors may agree to the resolution by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.
- (e) A circular resolution is passed when the last Director signs or otherwise agrees to the resolution in the manner set out in this clause 17.7.

17.8. Validity of acts of Directors

Everything done at a Directors meeting, or by a person acting as a Director, is valid even if it is discovered later that there was some defect in the appointment, election or qualification of any of them or that any of them was disqualified or had vacated office.

- (i) the Chairperson of the meeting; or
 - (ii) the Chairperson of the next meeting.
- (e) The Directors must ensure that minutes of the passing of a circular resolution (of Members or Directors) are signed by a Director within a reasonable time after the resolution is passed.

21.2. Financial and related records

- (a) The Company must make and keep written financial records that:
- (i) correctly record and explain its transactions and financial position and performance; and
 - (ii) enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared and to be audited.
- (b) The Company must also keep written records that correctly record its operations.
- (c) The Company must retain its records for at least 7 years.
- (d) The Directors must take reasonable steps to ensure that the Company's records are kept safe.

22. POLICIES AND BY-LAWS

22.1. Making a Policy or By-law

- (a) The Directors may pass a resolution to make Policies or By-laws to give effect to this Constitution.

- (b) Members and Directors must comply with Policies and By-laws as if they were part of this Constitution.

23. NOTICE

23.1. What is notice

- (a) Anything written to or from the Company under any clause in this Constitution is written notice and is subject to clauses 23.2 to 23.4, unless specified otherwise.
- (b) Clauses 23.2 to 23.4 do not apply to a notice of proxy under this Constitution.

23.2. Notice to the Company

Written notice or any communication under this Constitution may be given to the Company, the Directors or the Secretary by:

- (a) delivering it to the Company's registered office;
- (b) posting it to the Company's registered office or to another address chosen by the Company for notice to be provided; or
- (c) sending it to an email address or other electronic address notified by the Company to the Members as the Company's email address or other electronic address.

23.3. Notice to Members

- (a) Written notice or any communication under this constitution may be given to a Member:
 - (i) in person;
 - (ii) by posting it to, or leaving it at the address of the Member in the Register of Members or an alternative address (if any) nominated by the Member for service of notices;
 - (iii) sending it to the email or other electronic address nominated by the Member as an alternative address for service of notices (if any); or
 - (iv) if agreed to by the Member, by notifying the Member at an email or other electronic address nominated by the Member, that the notice is available at a specified place or address (including an electronic address).
- (b) If the Company does not have an address for the Member, the Company is not required to give notice in person.

23.4. When notice is taken to be given

A notice:

- (a) delivered in person, or left at the recipient's address, is taken to be given on the day it is delivered;
- (b) sent by post, is taken to be given on the third day after it is posted with the correct payment of postage costs;

- (c) sent by email or other electronic method, is taken to be given on the business day after it is sent; and
- (d) given under clause 23.3(a)(iv) is taken to be given on the business day after the notification that the notice is available is sent.

23.5. Defects in meeting notices

The non-receipt of a notice convening, cancelling or postponing any meeting, or the accidental omission to give a notice of that kind to, a person entitled to receive it, does not invalidate the meeting, any resolution passed at the meeting or at a postponed meeting, or the cancellation of a meeting.

24. FINANCIAL YEAR

24.1. Company's financial year

The Company's financial year is from 1 January to 31 December, unless the Directors pass a resolution to change the financial year.

25. INDEMNITY, INSURANCE AND ACCESS

25.1. Indemnity

- (a) The Company indemnifies each officer of the Company out of the assets of the Company, to the relevant extent, against all losses and liabilities (including costs, expenses and charges) incurred by that person as an officer of the Company.
- (b) In this clause, 'officer' means a Director, Secretary, employee or auditor appointed by the Company and includes a Director, Secretary, employee or auditor appointed by the Company after they have ceased to hold that office.
- (c) In this clause, 'to the relevant extent' means:
 - (i) to the extent that the Company is not precluded by law (including the Corporations Act) from doing so; and
 - (ii) for the amount that the officer is not otherwise entitled to be indemnified and is not actually indemnified by another person (including an insurer under an insurance policy).
- (d) The indemnity is a continuing obligation and is enforceable by an officer even though that person is no longer an officer of the Company.

25.2. Insurance

To the extent permitted by law (including the Corporations Act), and if the Directors consider it appropriate, the Company may pay or agree to pay a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer of the Company against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the Company.

25.3. Directors' access to documents

- (a) A Director has a right of access to the financial records of the Company at all reasonable times.
- (b) If the Directors agree, the Company must give a Director or former Director access to:

- (i) certain documents, including documents provided for or available to the Directors; and
- (ii) any other documents referred to in those documents.

26. WINDING UP

26.1. Contributions of Members on winding up

- (a) Each Member must contribute the amounts set out in clause 2.3 on winding up of the Company.

26.2. Excess property on winding up

If on the winding up or dissolution of the Company, and after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property remains, that property must be given or transferred to another body or bodies having objects and purposes similar to those of the Company to be determined by the Board at or before the time of dissolution or, failing that determination, by a judge who has or acquires jurisdiction in the matter.

Revised 13th April 2023

SCHEDULE 1

Transitional Provisions

- 1.1 “First Directors” means the persons referred to in clause 1.3 of this Schedule who will take office pursuant to their appointment to the Board.
- 1.2 Notwithstanding the maximum terms for Directors in clause 14.7:
 - (a) at the first Annual General Meeting following the adoption of this Constitution, three of the First Directors will retire from office (and in the absence of an agreement as to who will retire, those to retire will be determined by lot from the First Directors) and an election will be held to elect three (3) Elected Directors. Those retiring First Directors will, subject to the requirements of this Constitution, be eligible for re-election; and
 - (b) at the second Annual General Meeting following the adoption of this Constitution, the remaining three First Directors will retire from office and an election will be held to elect three (3) Elected Directors. Those retiring First Directors will, subject to the requirement of this Constitution, be eligible for re-election.
- 1.3 The First Directors will be the Directors of the Board of the Company as at the date of this Constitution and are as follows:
 - (a) Elizabeth Kratzel;
 - (b) Lillian Kluge;
 - (c) Tara Sullivan;
 - (d) Michelle Chabi;
 - (e) Yvonne Snell
- 1.4 During the Transitional Period the Board may operate with 5 Directors.
- 1.5 These Transitional Provisions will cease to have effect on the expiry of the term of office for the last remaining First Director.
- 1.6 For the avoidance of doubt, any previous terms served as a Director will not prevent a person acting as a First Director under the Transitional Provisions.
- 1.7 The head of the newly formed Competitions Standing Committee will be held by the previous Director of Competitions.
- 1.8 During the Transitional Period and thereafter, the Executive Officer will take on the role of Company Secretary.
